SI Letter No. 4 to Pine, dated 12 May 1952

1. We received your No. 3 on 28 April and are distressed to learn of the difficulties arising in Lume. We still intend to send you a friend and supplies to the same place where Koci and Dalip came to meet you last October as we stated in our Letter No. 3, dated 10 April 1952. You will use same signals as before and acknowledge this letter stating whether you are able to carry out these instructions and be at this meeting place.
2. If due to recent developments in Lume you are unable to be at the meeting place waiting for us from 7 June to 10 June and again from 6 July to 9 July, write us at once and give us the map location of the place you wish us to come on these dates. You should choose a type of ground suitable for the arrival of a friend we are planning to send to aid Dalip in his work.
3. Starting June 1st, Dalip must attempt to communicate with us. He will use the same signal plans as before and we will wait for news from him at these hours.
4. Write us acknowledging our No. 3 and No. 4 letters.
5. The Committee radio has sent greetings and congratulations to Pine Tree.
6. Carry on with your work for liberty for all freedom loving Albanians.

Joseph

NOTE: Letter #4 was addressed to Rifat Kolgjini, Bruga 51 No 27, Kosmet, Prizren, Yugoslavia rather than to Dalip Zyberi. This was requested by Pine in a personal letter to Kaempfer dated 19 April 1952.
